

A large, detailed close-up photograph of the Spiraea japonica Walberton's Plumtastic variety. The image shows several clusters of small, five-petaled magenta flowers with prominent, long, white stamens. The flowers are arranged in dense, rounded panicles. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting foliage.

Spiraea japonica Walberton's® Plumtastic

NEW DARK LEAF SPIRAEA

Origin: bred in the UK

Protection status:

EU and UK PVR granted

EU and UK trademark

Variety name: Spiraea WALPLUM

Benefits of this variety:

- New dark foliage variety.
- Young growth is plum coloured.
- New foliage produced throughout the summer.
- Heads of magenta flowers.
- Outstanding disease resistance.
- Compact, bushy habit.
- Extremely cold hardy.

Characteristics:

- Height: 50cm when mature.
- Width: 50cm
- Flowering time: May and June.
- Foliage: dark plum red, fades to deep green. Great autumn colour.
- Habit: dense, compact, bushy.

Wholesale suppliers:

- Farplants
- Irish Garden Plants
- Elite stock in preparation

