

Verbena/Glandularia Margaret's Memory

ROYALTY SHARE TO THE ALZHEIMER'S SOCIETY

Origin: bred in the UK

Protection status: Protected in EU and UK

Variety name: Glandularia Margaret's Memory

Benefits of this variety:

- Mutation from Seabrook Lavender.
- Hardy to at least -7 Celsius.
- Similar habit to the parent variety—low, well-branched, slightly spreading.
- Good dark green foliage.
- Pink flowers with darker eye.
- Slightly fragrant.
- Makes a great garden plant.
- A significant share of the royalties to be donated to The Alzheimer's Society.

Characteristics:

- Height: 20cm
- Flowering time: May until frost.
- Foliage: dark green.
- Bloom: pink with dark eye, scented.
- Habit: low, well branched, spreading.

Wholesale suppliers:

- Farplants
- Kernock Park Plants

